

Code of Conduct

We Exercise Kindness

Please use positive, encouraging behavior while inside the center. We do not tolerate profane or explicit language, harassment, or aggressive behavior.

We Engage in Respectful Behavior

Please share and take turns while inside the center. Remember to treat the exhibits well, so that other guests have a chance to experience them!

We Assume Good Intentions

Children may unintentionally touch or bump into each other while actively playing and exploring inside the center. Please be patient and understanding.

Additional Codes to Follow

Stay Together, Play Together: Adults MUST stay with their children at all times! Adults are responsible for monitoring and assisting children in their care.

- Always Use Helping Hands: Explore, share, and put things away! Help reset an area when you leave so the next person to use the space can have fun, too.
- Always Use Walking Feet: No running, please, for the safety of yourself and others! Walking feet with shoes are required at all times.
- Make Memories, Don't Miss Them: You are your child's first teacher and playmate. We encourage a screen free experience, unless capturing precious memories.

By visiting the Magic City Discovery Center (MCDC), you agree on behalf of yourself and any minor children accompanying you, to voluntarily assume all risk, including the risk of personal injury, property damage or other loss and MCDC is released and discharged from such liability to the fullest extent of the law. You also accept our Code of Conduct and further acknowledge that MCDC reserves the right to deny or revoke access to any person whom MCDC believes is violating the Code of Conduct.
